Poetry & Story by Kelvin Fowler

UK & Ireland. February 4–12

Ipswich-Norwich-Glasgow-Inverness-Perth-
West Kilbride-Ayr-Coleraine-Dublin

New Zealand born Kelvin Fowler is a poet, pastor, storyteller and cyclist. He has lived extensively with the world's poor and counts amongst his friends, homeless, transvestites and orphans. He has lived in a cardboard house, on the streets, and presently lives in a red brick former Soviet apartment building. His poetry reflects the adventure that he calls life.
